Ambleside

An attractive stone built traditional Lakeland end of terrace property, offering spacious five bedroom accommodation, spread over 4 floors including garage and basement. Positioned in an elevated location which provides stunning panoramic westerly facing views. Offering an attractive combination of original characterful features including high ceilings along with modern appointments, all assisting to create a delightful property. With two reception rooms, modern kitchen/diner utility/sun room, three double bedrooms and a further two on the top floor, house bathroom and an en suite. A large workshop/storage area, internal garage and mature low maintenance garden with vegetable patch and patio. A versatile property which is currently a superb home it would equally be suitable for a second home/and or holiday let.

The property is situated above this most popular Lake District town enjoying a sunny westerly aspect. The elevated aspect provides superb panoramic fell views towards Fairfield and Loughrigg. Located just a short stroll away from Ambleside town centre, elevated upon a quiet residential cul-de-sac. The popular town of Ambleside offers a plethora of independent shops, cafes, restaurants, bars and there are even three cinemas. As it sits at the head of Lake Windermere it offers a popular base for those looking to enjoy all the Lake District National Park has to offer, whether that be one of the many walks across the fells, tourist attractions or choice of watersports on the lakes. It is also conveniently located along the A591 that directly links to the M6 and is just a 10 minute drive to the Windermere train station.
