CHESTERTONS

A beautifully renovated and recently redecorated semi-detached Arts & Crafts home, rich in period features and ideally situated on a peaceful cul-de-sac in the heart of East Sheen.

The property offers a west-facing garden, accessible from both the elegant reception room and the spacious eat-in kitchen—perfect for entertaining and family living. An attached garage provides excellent storage for bikes and sports equipment, with further potential to extend or convert (subject to the usual consents).

Presented in excellent condition throughout, the home benefits from double glazing and extensive built-in storage, including bespoke wardrobes and stylish alcove units.

Holmesdale Avenue is known for its strong sense of community and low traffic, making it particularly appealing for families. On-street parking is convenient, and the quiet setting offers a safe environment for children.

Ideally located, the highly regarded Sheen Mount Primary School is just a five-minute walk away, along with the vibrant centre of East Sheen, offering a wide selection of restaurants, supermarkets, and local pubs.
