The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

Nestled between the picturesque villages of Cosheston and Milton in the heart of Pembrokeshire, this charming semi-detached stone cottage boasts a wealth of original character features, including exposed stonework, beams and slate window ledges.

The accommodation comprises a kitchen, utility area, lounge with wood-burning stove, double bedroom and shower room.

Externally, a delightful courtyard garden provides the perfect setting for relaxing and al fresco dining, while two allocated parking spaces add further convenience. The property also offers access to walks along the estuary.

Ideal as a first-time purchase, holiday bolt hole or investment opportunity, this delightful cottage offers a characterful retreat in a picturesque rural setting.

Cosheston is a picturesque and highly desirable village, ideally located between the popular towns of Tenby, Narberth, Pembroke, and Haverfordwest, all of which offer a wide range of everyday amenities including schools, healthcare facilities, supermarkets, and excellent transport links. Within the village itself, you'll find a well-regarded primary school, a popular pub and restaurant, two churches, and a community playing field. The stunning coastal destinations of Tenby and Saundersfoot are just a short drive away, offering beautiful beaches and a wealth of leisure activities.

DIRECTIONS

Leave the office heading north-east along Main Street through Pembroke town centre — Pembroke Castle will be on your left. Continue straight onto the A477 towards Pembroke Dock / St Clears. After approx. 1 mile, pass the turn to Milton, then take the next left — signposted Cosheston. Follow the lane into the village — road bends right then uphill. At the crossroads by the village hall/war memorial, go straight across. Continue a short distance — Forge Cottage is on your left. The exact entrance/driveway is at ///cassettes.replaces.impulse — marked by a traditional stone cottage frontage.
