Denise White Estate Agents Comments

This charming three-bedroom semi-detached home is quietly tucked away in a small cul-de-sac, yet within easy walking distance of Buxton town centre. The elevated position gives the property a wonderful outlook, with far-reaching views across Buxton and the surrounding hills.

A storm porch and welcoming entrance hall lead into the living room, with the ground floor continuing through to an open-plan dining kitchen, creating a good amount of space for everyday living. To the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms, a useful laundry cupboard and shower room.

Outside, there is off-road parking to the front and a good-sized rear garden, which makes the most of the property's elevated position and views. The under-house storage, accessed from the rear garden, is a particularly useful addition and provides excellent space for storage.

Houses in such a quiet and tucked-away position, whilst still being so close to the centre of Buxton, are not often available. Combined with the character, space and outlook, this is what makes this house particularly appealing.

Location

Situated on Curzon Road in the heart of Buxton, the property enjoys a convenient position within this much-loved Peak District spa town. The town centre, railway station and a wide range of everyday amenities are all within easy reach, including independent shops, cafés, restaurants and leisure facilities.

Buxton offers an exceptional lifestyle, combining the beauty and tranquillity of the Peak District with the convenience, culture and character of a thriving historic spa town. This sought-after area is particularly well placed, with the beautiful Pavilion Gardens, Buxton Opera House and town centre all within easy reach, while open countryside and some of the Peak District's most spectacular scenery are virtually on the doorstep. Buxton itself offers an excellent selection of independent shops, cafés, restaurants and leisure facilities, together with well-regarded schools and a strong sense of community. For commuters, the town also benefits from a direct rail service to Stockport and Manchester, making it possible to enjoy a more relaxed countryside lifestyle without feeling disconnected. With its striking architecture, green open spaces, vibrant cultural scene and wonderful opportunities for walking, cycling and outdoor pursuits, Buxton is a very special place to call home – equally appealing to families, professionals and those looking for a change of pace.

Why We Love This House !

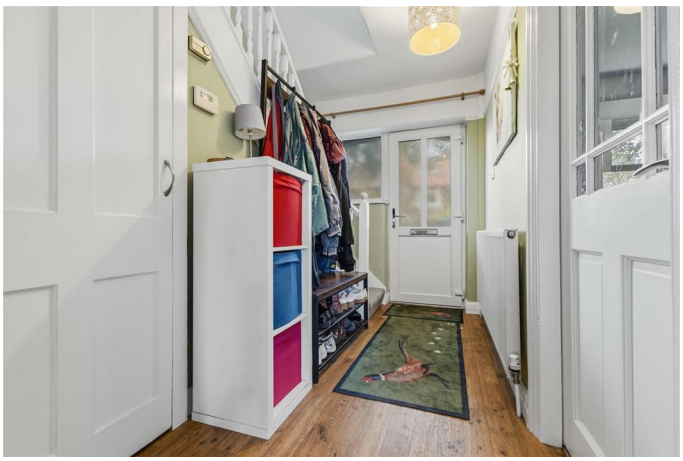

There is something about the position of this house that really stands out. Tucked away in its own little cul-de-sac, it feels peaceful and private, yet you can walk into the centre of Buxton in just a few minutes.

We particularly love the views, which give the house a lovely sense of space and change with the seasons.

Inside, it has a good amount of living space and plenty of character, and the garden and lower-ground-floor space add to the practicality of the home.

It is a house that feels comfortable and genuine, with a lovely setting that we think will really appeal to its next owner.
