SITUATION

Pentrebeirdd is a small rural settlement in Powys, Mid Wales, situated near the village of Guilsfield and just a short distance from the market town of Welshpool (Y Trallwng). Often regarded as a gateway to Mid Wales, Welshpool offers a wide range of local amenities, including shops, schools, healthcare services, leisure facilities, and transport links, while being surrounded by an area of outstanding natural rural beauty.

Welshpool is home to several notable attractions, including the medieval Powis Castle, the Welshpool and Llanfair Light Railway, and the Montgomery Canal, reflecting the town’s rich history and heritage. The town also benefits from a railway station providing direct services to Shrewsbury, Birmingham, and the Cambrian Coast, with both Shrewsbury and Newtown within convenient commuting distance.

ACCOMODATION

The property is entered via an attractive entrance porch with oak flooring, where a glazed panel door opens into the impressive open-plan kitchen, dining and snug area, creating a welcoming heart to the home.

The cosy snug features an inset wood-burning stove set within an exposed brick chimney breast, complemented by dual-aspect windows that fill the space with natural light.

Flowing seamlessly from the snug, the beautifully refurbished kitchen and dining area has been thoughtfully designed with a comprehensive range of contemporary wall and base units. Integrated appliances include a washing machine, dishwasher and fridge/freezer, while quality Staron work surfaces incorporate an inset sink and drainer with an extractor canopy above the cooking area.

An oak door leads to the inner hallway, where a turned staircase rises to the first floor. From here, doors provide access to the lounge and rear boot room.

The lounge offers a warm and inviting atmosphere, centred around a charming wood-burning stove. Oak flooring continues throughout, while dual-aspect windows and double-glazed French doors open directly onto the front garden, allowing plenty of natural light and providing an excellent connection between the indoor and outdoor living spaces.

The rear boot room provides a practical and versatile space, enhanced by a vaulted ceiling and a striking glazed gable elevation that floods the room with natural light. A double-glazed door opens directly onto the rear courtyard, offering convenient access and making it an ideal space for coats, boots and everyday storage.

EXTERNALLY

Externally, the property is set within a rural setting, enjoying far-reaching countryside views. The beautifully maintained grounds extend to 2 acres and offer an impressive range of amenities, including three paddocks, two stables, a hay barn, workshop, machinery shed with separate off grid W.C. and washing facilities with independent gas boiler , and a well-established kitchen garden with greenhouse. The front garden provides an attractive approach, thoughtfully landscaped with a pond and gazebo.

Additional features include a shepherd’s hut with power and water would make an ideal air B&B for those wishing to generate an additional income stream , solar PV panels, and a wealth of versatile outdoor spaces, making this a truly special country home. The outbuildings have many potential uses beyond their original purpose, subject to the grant of the necessary planning permission.

ANTI MONEY LAUNDERING CHECKS

We are legally obligated to undertake anti-money laundering checks on all property purchasers. Whilst we are responsible for ensuring that these checks, and any ongoing monitoring, are conducted properly; the initial checks will be handled on our behalf by a specialist company, Movebutler, who will reach out to you once your offer has been accepted.

The charge for these checks is £30 (including VAT) per purchaser, which covers the necessary data collection and any manual checks or monitoring that may be required. This cost must be paid in advance, directly to Movebutler, before a memorandum of sale can be issued, and is non-refundable. We thank you for your cooperation.
