A beautiful detached cottage that is bursting with history, charm, and character, situated in the heart of Yatton, providing convenient access to all the amenities the village has to offer and offered to the market with no onward chain - This stunning period home is believed to date back to the 1800's and started life as two separate cottages, Sunnyside and Snowdrop and was sympathetically converted into one residence in the 1950's to create this spectacular home. The entrance sets the tone perfectly with cobbles which previously formed part of the historic Isambard Kingdom Brunel, Passenger Sheds creating a courtyard. Inside the character continues with inglenook fireplaces, wooden beams and a priest hole that allows access to a room now used as an additional study. Off of the entrance hall is the kitchen, offering a bright dual aspect along with a cloakroom and drawing room. Both the sitting room and dining area boast bay windows and inglenook fireplaces which are features you hope to see in such a property. A later addition is the wonderful garden room to the rear with an exposed wooden ceiling which affords an outlook over the beautifully landscaped garden. The first floor offers a wonderful dual-aspect principal bedroom with an en-suite shower room and two further double bedrooms. Bedroom three is accessed via a secondary staircase from the sitting room whilst retaining the additional benefit of an adjoining door to bedroom two.

Outside, the rear garden has been lovingly tended and thoughtfully landscaped to provide different areas to appreciate and relax with the picturesque church in view. Areas laid to lawn and raised patio seating are contrasted with decorative stone and planted beds with two feature ponds, stone outbuilding and summer house creating a wonderful ambiance. This really is a wonderful space to socialise with friends and family when the weather allows and complements the property perfectly. The front is enclosed by a natural stone wall with an area laid to lawn that is bordered by a variety of well-tended shrubs and bushes. The gravel driveway provides off-street parking and is accessed via a five-bar gate wooded gate, the historic cobblestone courtyard leads to the main entrance of the wonderful residence.

This charismatic cottage is located in the quiet and peaceful backwater, Church Road. This popular spot is just a short walk from all of Yatton's amenities, including the shopping precinct and Yatton's highly regarded primary school. Yatton railway station with mainline connections to Cornwall, Devon, Bristol, London and beyond is also within easy reach.
