Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Set within a popular residential area, this spacious four-bedroom detached home occupies a generous plot with mature front and rear gardens, off-road parking, and an integral garage. In need of full modernisation throughout, the property presents an excellent opportunity for those seeking a large and versatile family home with the scope to update, reconfigure, and create a truly bespoke living space.

The accommodation begins with an entrance porch leading into the hallway, where you will find a well-proportioned kitchen, a useful downstairs WC, and internal access to the integral garage. To the rear, two generous reception rooms enjoy views over the garden through large windows that fill the space with natural light. The dining area features sliding doors opening directly onto the private rear garden, making it an ideal layout for both family living and entertaining.

Upstairs hosts four bedrooms: two large double bedrooms situated at the rear of the property overlooking the garden, and two comfortable single bedrooms positioned to the front with a pleasant outlook. All four bedrooms are served by a centrally located family bathroom.

The property enjoys a sizeable and relatively private plot, with a mature hedgerow screening the front garden and pathways allowing gated access to the rear from either side of the home. The generous garden space offers superb potential for landscaping, extensions (subject to planning), or simply creating a beautiful outdoor retreat.

Location

Macclesfield combines historic charm and modern conveniences: old-brick mills, Georgian townhouses and Victorian terraces sit alongside contemporary shops and facilities.

The town centre sits on elevated ground with views over the Cheshire Plain and easy access to rolling countryside. The core of town has a good mix of independent shops, cafés, and high-street brands within the Grosvenor shopping centre - offering everyday essentials as well as opportunity to discover unique boutiques and artisan stores.

For food & socialising there are plenty of cafés, bakeries, pubs and restaurants to choose from – from casual coffee spots to more full-on evening meals or drinks.

The town supports a range of schooling options (independent and state, primary and secondary), making it practical for families.

Recreational amenities, green spaces and leisure options are also accessible – you're not just limited to urban living despite being central.

A Highlight of the town is the Treacle Market. The Treacle Market is one of Macclesfield's major local events – held on the last Sunday of every month. The market spreads across the historic cobbled streets of the town's Marketplace giving a lovely, old-town atmosphere.
