Perfectly located between St Agnes and Portreath, the property is approximately eight miles from the Cathedral City of Truro, which provides an extensive assortment of shopping, highly regarded schools, leisure facilities, a mainline railway station with direct services to London Paddington, and easy access to Newquay Airport.

DESCRIPTION

Galleons is a deceptively spacious and beautifully modernised detached bungalow. Extended to provide versatile and exceptionally well-balanced accommodation, the property offers four/five bedrooms, two bathrooms and an attic room, together with a range of additional spaces that make it equally suited to family living, entertaining or enjoying a relaxed coastal lifestyle.

The current vendors have extensively modernised the property, creating a stylish and contemporary home whilst retaining the practicality and ease of single-storey living. At the heart of the home is a particularly impressive open-plan kitchen/sitting room, designed as a sociable space in which to cook, dine and relax together. An atrium skylight floods the room with natural light, while wide patio doors open directly onto the rear garden, creating a wonderful connection between the house and outside space and providing the perfect setting for summer entertaining and alfresco dining.

The accommodation is further complemented by a further sitting room, offering a quieter space in which to relax, together with two utility rooms providing excellent practical storage. There is also a dedicated home gym/workroom, ideal for those working from home, pursuing hobbies or maintaining an active lifestyle.

The property benefits from a beautifully refitted bathroom and newly installed shower room, both finished with contemporary sanitaryware. Four bedrooms provide excellent flexibility for family and visiting guests, while the additional attic room offers further useful space and could lend itself to a variety of purposes, subject to any necessary consents.

OUTSIDE

The property is attractively screened from the road by mature hedging, creating a lovely sense of privacy, with ample off street parking for four cars to the front, together with a garage.

The rear garden provides a wonderful outdoor space for relaxing and entertaining, with a generous area of lawn complemented by a paved patio, ideal for alfresco dining and relaxing. Further areas are laid to loose granite chippings, creating a low maintenance and versatile garden. From here, far reaching countryside views unfold beyond, providing a beautiful rural outlook and a particularly peaceful setting.
