The stunning handmade kitchen is the centrepiece of the home, with wooden and copper worktops complementing the blue coloured base and wall units, a central island with a built-in pantry, an integrated fridge freezer, a gas hob, and an electric oven. French doors open to the conservatory, which could easily be incorporated as part of the kitchen.

The first-floor landing gives way to three good-sized bedrooms, and the main bathroom with a three-piece suite including a shower over the bath.

The Outside

The property occupies an elevated plot, with a driveway to the front providing off-road parking and a pathway leading to the front door. Side gates lead to the rear, with the garden being mainly laid to lawn, boasting a patio terrace, a detached garage with power and light, and fencing to all boundaries.
