Nestled in the charming, farming village of Stainton with Adgarley, this beautifully presented home enjoys a delightful view towards the village green and a patchwork of open farmland beyond. The extended accommodation includes a highly glazed snug, a comfortable lounge with open fire, a modern dining kitchen, two double bedrooms and a smartly finished mono style bathroom. There is a boarded loft area, an external wash house/laundry, double glazing and LPG central heating. This is a lovely location that will enjoy broad appeal, whether it be for a permanent home or holiday retreat. Reluctant sale due to relocation so benefits from no upper chain.
