Main Street, Swanland, HU14 3QP

This charming traditional bay-fronted semi-detached home enjoys a prime position close to the heart of the village and within easy reach of the highly regarded local primary school. Enhanced by an impressive double-height rear extension, the property offers spacious, well-balanced accommodation perfectly suited to modern family living. A standout feature is the stunning open-plan kitchen, beautifully designed around a central island. The kitchen flows seamlessly into a cosy snug with log-burning stove, while additional accommodation includes a separate lounge, utility room, and downstairs cloakroom/W.C. To the first floor are four well-proportioned bedrooms, three of which are generous doubles, complemented by a superb family bathroom with walk-in shower and oval bath, alongside a stylish modern en-suite shower room.

Set back from the road in an elevated position, the property boasts a block-set driveway to the front and side, providing ample off-street parking and access to the garage. The impressive rear garden extends to approximately 150ft, being predominantly laid to lawn and offering excellent outdoor space for families. A summerhouse with power adds further versatility, ideal for use as a home office, studio, or relaxation space.
