Ideally located on Airedale Terrace of Skipton, this fine example of a Victorian mid-terrace house offers a perfect blend of period elegance and modern convenience. Superbly presented and offering a charming and friendly home.

Located within close walking distance of the town centre, this property boasts the rare advantage of a private parking space at the rear. The train station is a 10 minute walk.

Featuring substantial accommodation spread over four floors equating to 1829 sq ft including the very usable basement area and a versatile habitable attic room with escape window, 2 reception rooms and 2 double bedrooms, making it an excellent choice for families or those seeking extra space.

The ground floor welcomes you with an entrance vestibule that leads into a reception hall adorned with period coving, original tiled floor, and an elegant archway. The spacious front sitting room, complete with a charming bay window and wood-burning fire, provides a cosy atmosphere. A second reception room, currently a dining room and home office area offers additional space for entertaining or family gatherings, and features French doors onto the Yarden

The attractive fitted kitchen is practical and functional, and the useful basement / cellar area presents a utility room / space with potential for further development, and a store-room. Ascending to the first floor, you will find two double bedrooms and a large, luxurious bathroom, perfect for unwinding after a long day. The good-sized attic room featuring dormer-style escape window, adds to the overall appeal and versatile space of this home.

Externally, the property boasts an attractive low-maintenance garden frontage, while the rear offers a delightful outside Yarden area with covered seating area, ideal for outdoor relaxation. A private off-road parking space is directly opposite.

This property represents an exciting opportunity for those in search of a spacious, character-filled home in close proximity to Skipton's vibrant town centre and train station. Don't miss the chance to make this charming residence your own.
