£255,000

IH INGLEBY HOMES

This much improved three-bedroom detached property certainly merits internal inspection.

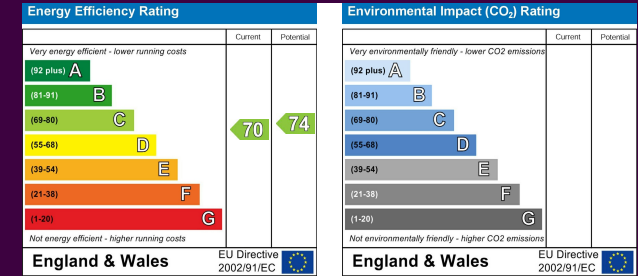

Enjoying a pleasant cul-de-sac position within this very desirable 'Sober Hall' area of Ingleby Barwick, ideally positioned for 'highly regarded' schooling, moments from access to lovely river walks and greenery, whilst boasting a re-laid frontage providing extended parking, and an attractive, established southerly rear garden.

A professionally executed garage conversion has enhanced the living space, providing additional living space that can be optimised to suit a new owner, possibly the ideal play room, study, sitting room or occasional fourth bedroom. All of the bathrooms have been improved, and are worthy of mention, whilst a rear conservatory makes the most of the lovely garden and sunny aspect.

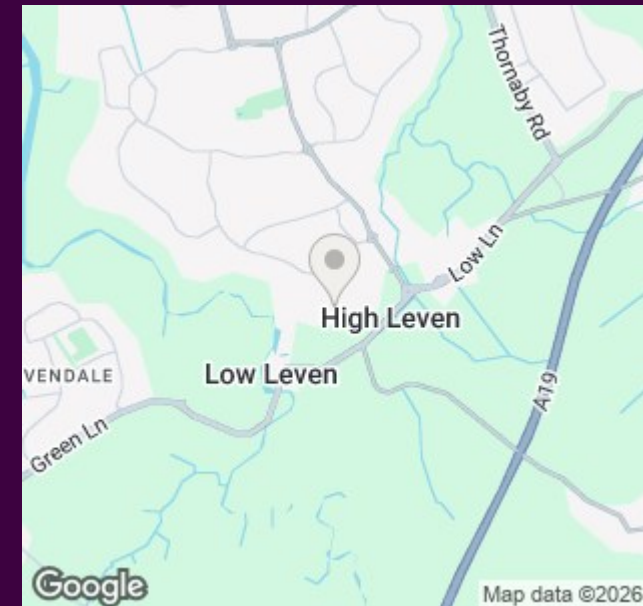

Very briefly, the accommodation comprises an entrance hall, sitting room/garage conversion, generous open-plan lounge/diner, conservatory, kitchen/breakfast room, utility and cloakroom/WC to the ground floor. The first floor brings three bedrooms, 'Master' with fitted mirror-robes and ensuite, with further fitted robes benefiting bedroom two, separate family bathroom.
