Tucked away on one of Burnham's most sought-after and peaceful central roads, just moments from the historic High Street, quay, marina, sailing clubs and an array of local amenities, this stylishly enhanced and deceptively spacious detached residence offers exceptional family living.

The light-filled and thoughtfully designed ground floor begins with a welcoming entrance hall featuring multiple storage cupboards and a convenient cloakroom. A superb triple-aspect sitting room provides an abundance of natural light, while the stunning refitted kitchen offers both style and functionality. The impressive open-plan living/dining room creates a wonderful entertaining space and flows seamlessly into a charming garden room to the rear. Beyond this, you'll find a dedicated music room and utility area, enhancing the home's versatility.

Upstairs, a generous landing leads to four well-proportioned bedrooms, three of which benefit from built-in wardrobes or storage. One of the main bedrooms enjoys its own en-suite shower room, while a contemporary 'Jack and Jill' bathroom serves the remaining bedrooms.

Externally, the property features attractive, low-maintenance block-paved courtyard gardens to the front and side, ideal for relaxed outdoor living. The frontage also provides driveway parking and access to a garage.

BURNHAM-ON-CROUCH:

Burnham-on-Crouch is a picturesque town on the banks of the River Crouch, a renowned yachting and sailing centre hosting the famous 'Burnham Week' at the end of August. The town has a population of a little over 9,500 and is the principal settlement in the Dengie peninsula. Consequently it boasts many amenities that are uncommon in small towns including two primary schools and an academy secondary school, independent cinema, Burnham yacht harbour/marina, several boatyards, three yacht clubs (including the Royal Corinthian & Royal Burnham), two supermarkets and numerous individual shops, public houses and restaurants. There is a railway station on the Southminster branch line with direct commuter trains into London Liverpool Street (at peak times). The Burnham-on-Crouch Golf Club, founded in 1923, is situated in Creeksea on the outskirts of Burnham and enjoys breathtaking views over the Crouch Valley and River Crouch.
