LOCATION

Haveringland is a charming rural village set within the picturesque Norfolk countryside, offering a peaceful and unspoilt setting ideal for those seeking a quieter pace of life. Surrounded by open farmland and scenic walking routes, the village retains a strong sense of heritage, with features such as the historic parish church of St Peter - one of Norfolk's distinctive round tower churches. Despite its tranquil setting, Haveringland benefits from access to nearby leisure opportunities including countryside walks, cycling routes and fishing lakes.

The village is well positioned for access to a range of amenities in nearby towns and villages. The neighbouring village of Cawston (approximately 2.5 miles) provides everyday essentials including a village shop, post office and public house, while the attractive market town of Reepham, just 4 miles away, offers a wider selection of independent shops, cafés and restaurants. The city of Norwich lies around 8 miles to the south east, providing extensive shopping, schooling and transport links, including rail services to London. Additional nearby towns such as Aylsham and Holt further enhance the area's appeal, while the North Norfolk coast can be reached within approximately 30–40 minutes by car.
