

103A & 103B Havelock Road, Luton, LU2 7PP

An excellent opportunity to acquire a freehold house conversion, offered for sale as a whole and held under one title, making it an ideal addition to any property portfolio.

The property has been thoughtfully converted into two well proportioned two bedroom flats, each providing comfortable and modern accommodation. Both units are currently tenanted, achieving a combined rental income of £1,900 per calendar month, offering an immediate return for investors who wish to take on the existing tenancies.

The building is presented in good condition, with well-maintained interiors that appeal to the local rental market. Each flat benefits from practical layouts, bright living spaces, and modern fittings, ensuring continued tenant demand.

To the rear, the property features a private garden, adding further appeal and versatility for
