IF YOU LIVED HERE...

You'd come in at ground level before heading upstairs to a thoughtfully arranged first-floor home, with the hallway drawing you through the layout in a clear, practical way. At the front, the reception room is a generous 17'1" x 10'6", with original features adding warmth and character to the space. It's a lovely room to settle into, with enough room for both relaxing and dining.

The kitchen sits separately off the hallway, neatly arranged and well presented, with a smart run of units and worktop space. Close by, the bathroom has a straightforward, functional layout, placed centrally for easy access from both bedrooms and the living space.

There are two bedrooms, each with well-judged proportions. The larger bedroom sits quietly towards the rear, overlooking the garden below, while the second bedroom offers flexibility as a guest room, nursery, dressing room or home office. Throughout, the home feels well cared for and easy to imagine making your own, with a natural flow that works beautifully for everyday living.

Beyond the front door, you're moments from Lea Bridge Station, making journeys across East London simple, while Leyton Jubilee Park offers a welcome stretch of greenery close to home.

WHAT ELSE?

- Lea Bridge Station is moments away, with useful connections towards Stratford and Tottenham Hale.
- Leyton Jubilee Park is close by for green space, walking routes and sports facilities.
- Local cafés, shops and schools sit within easy reach, including nearby amenities around Lea Bridge Road.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER...

Sydney Street is a great location, with Aldi and Pinch Deli round the corner, the Wetlands and bird reserve a short walk away, Leyton Jubilee park across the road and the C23 Cycleway providing a lovely route into Central through Hackney by bike. A fryup at BB cafe is great hangover cure. The street is super quiet, being on the same road as a primary school. The house is one of the bigger first floor Warners out there and has a massive boarded loft ready for conversion or just convenient storage. We also re-insulated the back bedroom and installed lap vents to ensure the loft space remains well ventilated. We renovated the garden with a pagoda decking at the back that is a lovely escape from the bustle and catches the sun just right in the summer. It's been great for BBQs and al-fresco dinners. Friendly neighbours all around with a family atmosphere, and leafy enclosed gardens at the back keep it all local feeling even in London.
