Situation

Walnut Way is a quiet and sought-after residential road located in the heart of Ruislip, offering an ideal blend of suburban tranquillity and everyday convenience. The area is particularly popular with families and professionals due to its excellent selection of highly regarded schools, including Ruislip High School, Bishop Ramsey School, Sacred Heart Catholic Primary School, Whiteheath Junior School. Transport links are superb, with nearby stations at South Ruislip, Ruislip Manor and Ruislip Gardens providing access to the Metropolitan, Piccadilly and Central lines, while West Ruislip offers National Rail services; there are also frequent bus routes and easy access to the A40 and M25 for motorists. Residents benefit from close proximity to Ruislip High Street and Victoria Road, which offer a wide range of shops, cafés, restaurants and supermarkets, alongside leisure facilities and gyms. The area is also renowned for its abundance of green spaces, including Ruislip Woods National Nature Reserve, Manor Farm and Pinn Meadows, making it an excellent location for those seeking a well-connected yet peaceful setting.
