EPC Rating C

Seldom available, this particularly impressive and spacious apartment occupies the entire first floor of an attractive period property. Its own private side entrance gives the property a wonderful sense of independence, making it feel more like a house than an apartment. With a private west-facing roof terrace to the rear, it enjoys a prime position in the heart of Corsham's historic and picturesque High Street. Inside, the generous rooms benefit from wonderfully high ceilings, a tasteful colour scheme and an abundance of natural light. Large front-facing windows create a bright, sunny atmosphere, while many charming period features have been beautifully retained. The accommodation begins with a spacious private entrance hall, featuring a wide, gently rising staircase to the first floor, generous storage space and an understairs cupboard with plumbing for a washing machine. The impressive sitting room features attractive windows overlooking the High Street and offers plenty of room for both entertaining and relaxing. It leads through to a fully fitted kitchen/breakfast room, which enjoys a west-facing aspect, ample dining space and a door opening directly onto the roof terrace. The principal bedroom, positioned at the front of the apartment, benefits from generous built-in wardrobes and a private en-suite bathroom. The second bedroom is also a comfortable double and has its own facilities, including a private cloakroom and separate shower. A particularly special and valuable feature is the private west-facing roof terrace, offering plenty of space to enjoy the afternoon sunshine and dine alfresco when the weather allows. All in all, this is a wonderful and exceptionally rare opportunity to enjoy life on one of England's prettiest village High Streets.

Situation

Corsham is a pretty and historic town of architectural significance located on the southern fringes of the Cotswolds, an area of outstanding natural beauty and some 8 miles North East of the fine Georgian City of Bath. The town, noted for its fine High Street, has a wealth of beautiful and historic buildings dating from the 16th Century such as the Alms House and the historic Corsham Court with its landscaped open parkland. The town caters for most day to day needs with a range of national and bespoke shops, coffee houses, boutiques, restaurants and a variety of public houses. There are very good Primary and Secondary schools and the new Corsham Leisure Centre. Communications are excellent: Bath, Bristol and Swindon are all within easy motoring distance; there are fast road links to London and the West Country via the M4 motorway (J17 and 18 aproximately 15 - 20 minutes away); and main line rail services are available from either Bath or Chippenham to Bristol Temple Meads and London Paddington.
