

46 Chapel Street

Guide Price £450,000 - £475,000

Occupying a desirable non-estate position on the edge of Cawston, this individually built detached family home enjoys partial field views to the front and offers spacious, versatile accommodation throughout.

The property features a welcoming living room centred around a cosy log-burning stove, creating an ideal space for family living and entertaining.

The impressive kitchen/breakfast room is fitted with a range of units and incorporates a breakfast bar, providing the perfect hub of the home for everyday dining and social gatherings.

A conservatory, currently utilised as a study, offers additional flexible living space with pleasant views over the rear garden.

To the first floor are four generous double bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with en-suite shower room, together with a well-appointed family bathroom.

Further benefits include oil-fired central heating and double glazing throughout.

Outside, the property enjoys ample off-road parking for up to four vehicles, along with a garage.

The recently landscaped rear garden has been thoughtfully designed for outdoor living and entertaining, featuring an attractive patio area, including a hot tub and creating an ideal space to relax and enjoy the warmer months.

Combining an individual design, sought-after village-edge location and attractive outlook, this superb family home offers a rare opportunity to acquire a spacious detached property in one of the area's most desirable settings.

NB: The property is registered under two Title numbers, which an indemnity policy is in place to cover this.

Services

Oil fired central heating. Mains water, drainage, and electricity are connected.
