The property offers an internal area of approximately 1,277 sq ft. The brick façade and large windows allow natural light to enhance the wooden floors and minimalist design. The kitchen features rich wood tones and Miele appliances, creating an elegant and functional space. The property comprises well-proportioned bedrooms, sleek bathrooms, a generous living area, a Juliet balcony, and access to a communal outside garden. The location offers excellent access to the city's cultural and business districts. Its position near the vibrant areas around John Street provides convenient access to a range of leisure and lifestyle amenities. Lamb's Conduit Street is just around the corner, and Hatton Garden is also close by, offering independent cafés, boutiques, and restaurants. Transport connections are excellent, with Russell Square and Chancery Lane stations nearby.
