- Amenities: The town boasts a super range of every day facilities including a co-op, health centre, pharmacy, 18-hole golf course, swimming pool and sports centre plus a fantastic range of independent shops and eateries not to mention Gunsreen House – a museum dedicated to the towns historic smuggling trade.
- Schooling: There is both a primary school and secondary school within the town as well as Early Years settings.
- Population: Approximately 3700
- Transport Connections: Lying approximately fifty miles from Edinburgh, and just two miles off the A1 which affords easy connections to the North & South. Local East Coast Rail connections are available at Reston (6 miles) and Berwick Upon Tweed (8 miles)

ACCOMMODATION SUMMARY

Entrance Hall, Lounge, Dining Kitchen, Three Double Bedrooms and Bathroom

ACCOMMODATION

The layout of the interior makes the most of the harbour side location with the lounge plus all three bedrooms boasting fantastic uninterrupted outlooks. The lounge offers the perfect spot to watch the everyday hustling's of a working fishing port with two large windows to the front and a pleasant focal point provided by the modern wall mounted electric fire. A step from the main hallway leads up to the stylish dining kitchen which is fitted with a great range of contemporary units complete with wood effect worktops. This nicely sized room offers plenty of space for every day dining and has a connecting door to the separate warehouse/store that lies beyond. All three bedrooms are bright and spacious double rooms with ample space for free standing furniture whilst the bathroom towards the rear of the apartment is surprisingly large; newly fitted with contemporary wet wall panelling and a white suite including a bath and large separate stand-alone shower cubicle.

EXTERNAL

Positioned within a harbour-side location the property has a fantastic outlook towards the working harbour and Gunsreen House and surrounding areas. Although there is no garden with property, the picturesque beach is only a few minutes round the corner along with shops, cafes and local amenities all on your doorstep.
