15 The Close, Bucklands Place Trendlewood Way, Nailsea, North Somerset, BS48

A stunning, new-build, detached house at The Close, an exclusive development by Acorn Property Group of just five, four-bedroom houses, part of the wider Bucklands Place development nestled in a secluded location and bordered by a picturesque protected woodland. The homes have been designed to complement their surroundings through an informed colour palette and range of material finishes.

The Development

The Close at Bucklands Place is a collection of just five 4 bedroom homes set in a corner enclave at this prestigious development in the thriving town of Nailsea, a stone's throw from Bristol and perfectly positioned for suburban living.

This generously sized home suits a range of lifestyles, from families to professionals, and offer more scope to utilise your space, your way.

At 1,991sqft the house is perfect for modern living with a large open plan kitchen/dining/family room opening up through sleek aluminium, bi-fold doors to a patio/outside-dining area and garden. The Keller Kitchen features Siemens appliances, Caesarstone worktop and a Quooker hot tap. There is a separate living room on the ground floor and hallway with access to the large integral garage. Upstairs are four double bedrooms, two with en-suites. There is also a large roof terrace on the first floor offering superb panoramic views.

Location

Nailsea is the perfect commuter-town to call home, with peaceful suburban living and great links to Bristol and London with the new homes also just a ten-minute walk to Nailsea and Backwell train station. From plenty of local businesses and eateries to popular schools and useful amenities, Nailsea has everything you need.

Designed around a protected woodland, these homes come complete with private gardens surrounded by biodiverse planting to help the local wildlife flourish. Generous glazing has been incorporated to the design in order to create a flow from inside to out, and create spacious, warm, light-filled interiors.
