Offers In The Region Of £650,000

A period attached house believed to date from the C.18th fronting private landscaped gardens with gated driveway and a detached brick built office/store. The house offers three double bedrooms, two bathrooms and separate wc, sitting room with feature fireplace, conservatory/garden room and large dining/kitchen. It also enjoys a gas fired radiator heating system with period cast iron radiators, replacement PVCu double glazed sash windows, original internal doors, exposed timber and quarry tiled flooring, along with a number of fireplaces. Decorated in neutral shades, particular features are the hand built "farmhouse" style kitchen with range cooker, refitted bathrooms to both ground and first floors and a large traditionally styled conservatory overlooking well stocked mature gardens.
