Robinsons are pleased to present this charming and well-maintained two-bedroom terraced house located on Church Street in Helmington Row, a delightful area nestled between Crook and Willington. This property is ideally situated on a regular bus route, providing convenient access to both towns, which boast a variety of shopping amenities and educational facilities.

Upon entering, you will find a spacious lounge featuring a cosy log-burning stove, perfect for those chilly evenings. The kitchen is beautifully designed and comes equipped with integrated appliances, making it a joy for any home cook. The property also boasts a large and well-appointed four-piece bathroom, ensuring comfort and convenience for all residents.

On the first floor, you will discover two generously sized double bedrooms. The master bedroom offers a stunning view over the open countryside, creating a serene and peaceful atmosphere.

Externally, the property features a good-sized garden at the front, which provides a lovely outlook, while the rear yard is enclosed and easy to maintain, making it ideal for outdoor relaxation or entertaining.

This delightful home in Helmington Row presents a wonderful opportunity for those seeking a comfortable and stylish living space. We encourage you to contact Robinsons to arrange an internal viewing and experience all that this property has to offer.
