

The Property

A three-bedroom, two-reception, freehold terraced house with a large private garden, perfectly located on the desirable Roseberry Gardens, Haringey, N4. The property offers generous living space across two floors and presents an exciting opportunity for buyers seeking a home they can refurbish and modernise to their own taste.

The home currently holds an active HMO licence, valid from 05 January 2021 to 04 January 2026, and is licensed for a maximum of 7 occupants across 5 households. It is presently let and is currently tenanted, making it equally appealing to landlords looking for an income-generating property with licensing already in place.

Inside, the property features two bright reception rooms, a modern fitted open plan kitchen, a separate utility room, and a ground-floor shower room.

Upstairs, there are three well-proportioned bedrooms alongside a second contemporary shower room. While well arranged and full of potential, the house would benefit from cosmetic updating and modernisation, offering a great canvas for families or investors looking to add value.

The private rear garden provides useful outdoor space for children, relaxation, or entertaining, with scope for improvement or landscaping.

Location

Roseberry Gardens is a peaceful, tree-lined residential street popular with young families and professionals. The area offers a wonderful selection of local amenities, with Green Lanes, Crouch End and Finsbury Park all close by.

Excellent transport links via Haringay Overground, Manor House Underground, and Finsbury Park Station provide fast connections to Central London, the City, and major travel hubs. Nearby green spaces include Finsbury Park, Woodberry Wetlands, and the Parkland Walk, making this a well-rounded and highly convenient location.
