This wonderful period family home is presented in immaculate condition and offers a large double reception room, two double bedrooms, and a large rear garden.

The double reception room features an original fireplace, perfect for a cosy real fire, and retains many original features throughout, such as high ceilings and stripped floors.

There is a kitchen/breakfast/dining room to the rear of the property, which has access onto the garden. The garden is a huge selling point; it is beautiful with mature trees and plants, and is also completely secluded. It includes a workshop and a garden cabin that has power this could be made into a studio or office, there is also an outside WC, ideal for garden parties.

On the first floor, there are two bedrooms, with the master benefiting from a full wall of bespoke wardrobes. Completing the first floor is a family bathroom. This home offers plenty of natural light, and there is no onward chain.

Teddington railway station (with direct train services to London Waterloo) and Bushy Park are both 0.2 miles away. Teddington High Street, with its independent shops and wide range of restaurants, pubs and cafés, is only 0.4 miles away.
