46 North Street, Chichester

Situated in an excellent trading location in Chichester's busy North Street and close to the main shopping precinct, a Freehold shop premises.

The property which is on the main pedestrian route between Oaklands Carpark and the city centre, comprises a ground floor shop with cellar and 2 upper floors.

Chichester is a historic cathedral city and the county town of West Sussex, situated on the coastal plain between the South Downs National Park and Chichester Harbour.

The city offers an attractive and affluent catchment area, with a resident population of approximately 30,000 and a significantly larger daytime population drawn by its well-regarded retail, leisure and cultural offer.

The property occupies a prominent position on North Street, one of the four principal streets radiating from the city's iconic Market Cross and forming the heart of Chichester's primary retail pitch.

North Street attracts strong and consistent pedestrian footfall throughout the day, with an established mix of national retailers and well-regarded independent operators creating a vibrant and busy trading environment.

Nearby occupiers include a broad range of fashion, lifestyle and service retailers, providing additional footfall draw.

The city's thriving café and restaurant culture, combined with significant visitor numbers generated by Chichester Festival Theatre, Pallant House Gallery and Chichester Cathedral, ensures a diverse and loyal customer base extending well beyond the immediate resident population.

Chichester benefits from good accessibility by road and rail, with the A27 providing east-west access linking Portsmouth and Brighton, and Chichester railway station offering regular services to London Victoria (approximately 1 hour 45 minutes).

Several public car parks are located within easy walking distance of North Street, supporting retail trade from across the district.

Business Rates: April 2026 - £7200 - the vendor advises that the billed amount was nil due to Small Business Relief.
