45 Nightingale Crescent, West Horsley,
Surrey, KT24 6PD

Situated only a short walk from East Horsley village centre and station and very close to The Raleigh School, a four bedroom semi-detached house set in a large garden.

THE PROPERTY

A spacious and thoughtfully extended 4 bedroom semi-detached family home, perfectly positioned at the end of a highly sought-after crescent and just a short walk from the popular Rayleigh School. The ground floor offers excellent, adaptable living space. An inviting entrance hall opens into a generous lounge, which flows through double doors into the dining room. This space connects seamlessly to a bright family room featuring double doors that open directly onto the rear terrace. The well-fitted kitchen enjoys lovely views of the garden and connects back to both the dining room and hallway. Additionally, a practical lobby area features a cloakroom and access to a good-sized garage, which offers excellent potential for conversion into further living space. Upstairs, the accommodation comprises a spacious principal bedroom complete with an en-suite shower room and a walk-in closet. There are two further double bedrooms (both with fitted wardrobes), a versatile single bedroom with a storage cupboard, and a family bathroom. Outside the property truly shines with its spectacular, expansive gardens measuring 0.25 acres. Featuring vast lawn areas, mature trees, and high screening hedges for ultimate privacy, it provides a beautiful backdrop for outdoor entertaining. The garden also hosts a large, versatile home office/studio (previously a double garage), ideal for remote work or a gym. Council Tax Band E.
