28 Austin House King Street, Norwich, NR1 1FW

50% Shared Ownership Presented in show-home condition, this contemporary studio apartment occupies an enviable position beside the River Wensum, directly opposite the popular Riverside Retail Complex. The property is available to first-time buyers seeking a turn-key property in a prime riverside setting.

Set within a gated development surrounded by beautifully maintained communal gardens, the property benefits from a high level of security including electronic gates, a video entry telecom system and fob access for residents and visitors. The apartment itself is thoughtfully designed and well-presented throughout.

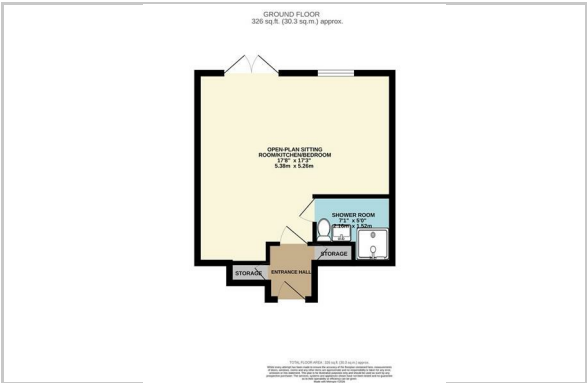

The accommodation comprises a bright and versatile open-plan sitting room/bedroom/kitchen area, complete with integrated appliances and designed to maximise space. The property is further complimented by a Juliet balcony and a sleek and modern shower room, which is finished to a high standard.

The property is offered in immaculate condition and can also be purchased fully furnished, allowing for an easy and immediate move-in. This superb apartment combines modern living with a highly convenient location, offering riverside walks, shopping, dining and transport links all within easy reach.
