The property begins in a small porchway which leads into an impressive hallway featuring sweeping staircase and access to all key rooms. The elegant front reception room is flooded with natural light from the large bay window and showcases decorative ceiling mouldings, a beautiful feature fireplace and period cornicing. This spacious lounge offers a warm and inviting setting for everyday living or entertaining. An archway connects to the rear aspect dining room which opens via glass double doors to the pretty courtyard garden. There is plenty of space for a large dining table and chairs for family meals and entertaining. The spacious kitchen is fitted with rustic pine cabinetry adding to the home's period charm. There is plenty of space for freestanding appliances with French doors leading out to the rear garden, offering both functionality and potential for future redesign. The hallway also provides access down to the cellar which offers excellent additional storage.

Upstairs, the home offers four well-sized bedrooms and two bathrooms across two floors. On the first floor is the principal bedroom, fitted with a range of cupboards positioned next to the first of two bathrooms and enjoys stunning elevated views over Ranmore creating a wonderful backdrop. With some reconfiguration there is the potential to create an ensuite bathroom to the main bedroom. Bedroom two is another generous double overlooking the garden. Finishing off this floor is the second bathroom, fitted with a bath and overhead shower. Stairs rise to the second floor where there are two further bedrooms each with plenty of room for furniture and enjoys lovely views out.

Outside, the low-maintenance courtyard garden is perfect for relaxing or entertaining in privacy, while the central town location means you're only moments away from boutique shops, cafes, restaurants, and mainline train services.
