

West Street, Horsham, West Sussex, RH12 1PB

Perfectly positioned in the very heart of Horsham's historic and thriving town centre, this superb two bedroom split-level apartment combines generous proportions, stylish contemporary interiors and an incredibly convenient location. Finished to a high standard throughout and offering an impressive amount of space, this is a home with broad appeal, whether you are a first-time buyer, professional commuter, downsizer or investor.

One of the real highlights is undoubtedly the location. Step outside and everything Horsham has to offer is within easy reach, with an excellent choice of restaurants, cocktail bars, traditional pubs and cafés alongside an extensive range of shops and major retailers, including Waitrose and John Lewis. Horsham's mainline railway station is also within walking distance, providing direct services into London in under an hour, while Gatwick Airport, Crawley and Brighton are all readily accessible for those commuting further afield.

Inside, the apartment immediately impresses with its sense of space and light. High ceilings and large windows create a wonderfully bright and airy feel, while the clever split-level layout provides a genuine distinction between the living and sleeping accommodation.

Accessed via a video door entry system, covered external stairs lead to a first-floor communal entrance shared by just two private dwellings. Once inside the apartment, a generous entrance hall sets the tone, providing a large understairs storage cupboard together with a stylish guest cloakroom, all presented in attractive contemporary neutral décor.

The main living area is a fantastic open-plan space and forms the social heart of the home. Two large windows flood the room with natural light, complemented by the impressive high ceilings and attractive detailing including decorative window casements, coving and skirting. There is ample room to create defined living and dining areas, with further space for a desk or dedicated home-working set-up if required.

Flowing seamlessly from the living area is the well-designed kitchen, fitted with an excellent range of gloss white wall and base units topped with contrasting composite stone work surfaces. Integrated appliances include a dishwasher, oven, hob and fridge/freezer, while a freestanding Bosch washer/dryer provides additional practicality.

A turned staircase rises from the hallway to the upper level, where the bedroom accommodation enjoys a little more privacy away from the main living space. The principal bedroom is a generous double, while the second is a particularly good-sized single bedroom and benefits from an additional storage cupboard positioned over the stairs. A well-appointed family bathroom completes the internal accommodation.

Outside, another valuable advantage for such a central location is the property's allocated parking space, while residents also have access to shared bicycle and bin storage. Combining spacious and stylish accommodation with the convenience of town-centre living, this impressive apartment offers an excellent opportunity to enjoy Horsham quite literally on your doorstep.
