A beautifully presented five bedroom detached house with two en-suites constructed in 2017 by Messrs Barratt Homes to their 'Harrogate' design. The property is situated on a westerly facing plot, on the desirable Saxon Rise development, within the thriving village of Brixworth.

The accommodation comprises entrance hall with wood floor and cloaks cupboard, glazed double doors open to the sitting room with wood floor and a walk-in bay window, 22' kitchen/dining/family room with tiled floor and two sets of double doors onto the westerly facing garden. Integrated appliances to the kitchen include gas hob, electric oven, microwave, fridge/freezer and dishwasher. Utility room with doors to the cloakroom/WC and garden. First floor landing, master bedroom with en-suite shower room, guest bedroom with en-suite shower room, three further double bedrooms and a re-fitted family bathroom with shower over the bath. Outside is a partially enclosed front garden with double width block paved drive giving access to an integral garage. There is side gated pedestrian access to the fully enclosed landscaped westerly facing rear garden. (A/1539/M)
