Located in the quiet and well regarded Altwood area, this semi detached bungalow offers a warm and welcoming feel from the moment you arrive. A generous front garden leads you up the path to the porch, where you step into a comfortable and inviting hallway.

Two well proportioned bedrooms sit at the front of the home, with the master featuring a large bay window overlooking the front garden. Both bedrooms include wardrobes, and the second bedroom has a generous window that brings in natural light and views of the front garden.

The cosy living room sits at the centre of the home, complete with a fireplace feature. Just off the living room is a practical, good sized kitchen. At the rear, a spacious orangery provides views onto the back garden and offers a peaceful spot to relax and enjoy the natural surroundings. It is currently used as a multifunctional space, incorporating a dining area, lounge seating and a small workspace, though it can be arranged in many ways to suit individual needs and style. Completing the internal accommodation is a well-presented shower room.

Beyond the main living areas, the property offers a smaller rear garden with a patio, a powered shed suitable for hobbies or working from home, a garage, and off road parking at the back of the home with a rear gate entrance. There is also a loft providing useful storage, with the possibility of future extension subject to planning permission.

The location is particularly convenient, with popular schools, local shops, arts and community venues all within walking distance. The M4 and A404 are close by making it ideal for commuting.

This is a well loved home in a desirable location, with plenty of scope for someone to make it their own.
