Description

Occupying a superb central position with a sunny southerly aspect overlooking Plymouth College and down Mutley Plain, this elegant double-fronted period townhouse is brimming with character and offers an exciting opportunity to create a stunning family home. Retaining many original features, including a magnificent staircase with carved newel post, balustrade and spindles, the spacious accommodation includes a welcoming L-shaped entrance hall, a generous bay-fronted living room and separate dining room, opening into a breakfast room and then through to the fitted kitchen. A ground floor WC/utility offers potential to reinstate a bath, creating a second bathroom. Upstairs, a beautiful stained-glass window lights the landing, leading to three double bedrooms, a stylish modern shower room, and a versatile dressing room/study that could serve as a fourth bedroom accessed off the third. Further benefits include gas central heating, uPVC double glazing, and an enclosed paved courtyard garden with rear pedestrian access. Ideally located just moments from the shops, cafés and amenities of Mutley Plain, and within easy walking distance of Hyde Park Primary School, this charming home combines period elegance with outstanding potential. Early viewing is highly recommended.
