Broichmore Newton Lane Blairgowrie, PH10 6HS

- Beautifully established gardens
- Lavender-lined entrance pathway
- Bay-windowed living room
- Ground-floor shower room
- Substantial cellar
- Attractive lawn and mature planting
- Three generous bedrooms
- Separate dining hall
- First-floor family bathroom
- External cellar access from rear garden

Broichmore is a wonderfully individual three-bedroom home on Newton Lane, with beautifully established gardens forming a major part of its appeal. The front garden creates an especially memorable first impression, with generous lawn, mature planting and a lavender-lined pathway leading towards the house, while further garden space to the rear offers additional privacy, greenery and room for outdoor seating.

Inside, the accommodation is arranged over two levels and retains a strong sense of period character throughout. A vestibule opens into the hallway, where a striking timber staircase with decorative iron balustrading immediately stands out. The principal living room features a bay window and traditional detailing, while the adjoining dining hall provides a distinctive and flexible central space. A separate kitchen sits alongside, with a well-proportioned bedroom and shower room completing the ground floor. Upstairs are two further generous bedrooms, both with traditional fireplaces, together with a family bathroom and useful storage. The property also benefits from a substantial cellar, accessed externally from the rear garden via a stairwell, providing valuable additional storage space. Combining characterful interiors, flexible accommodation and particularly appealing garden areas, Broichmore is a home with a distinctive personality and plenty of charm.
