PROPERTY SUMMARY

Available Now | Unfurnished | Three Bedrooms | Two Reception Rooms | Front & Rear Gardens | Garage/Storage

A spacious three-bedroom semi-detached property situated on Page Road in the Westwood area of Coventry, offering well-proportioned accommodation across two floors. The property is available immediately and is offered unfurnished. The ground floor comprises two separate reception rooms, providing flexible living and dining space, together with a kitchen. Upstairs, there are three bedrooms and a family bathroom, making the property well suited to families or tenants looking for additional living and bedroom space. Externally, the property benefits from gardens to both the front and rear, providing useful outdoor space. The garage is also available for storage purposes.

The property is situated within the CV4 postcode district. The surrounding area is predominantly residential, providing a convenient setting for those looking for a home with access to local amenities and the wider city.

Everyday shopping and amenities are available within the surrounding CV4 area, including Cannon Park Shopping Centre, which provides a range of shops and services as well as a supermarket.

The property also benefits from being well placed for access to Coventry city centre, where residents can find a wider choice of shopping, restaurants, leisure facilities and other amenities.

The area also provides access to a range of schools and educational facilities, making the location particularly appealing to families.
