Property Description
A generous hardstanding driveway provides off-road parking for up to four vehicles, while a flourishing rockery filled with established shrubs and colourful planting creates an attractive welcome. A neat strip of slate chippings and an easily maintained lawn soften the frontage, complementing the property's smart rendered exterior. A canopy with decorative gallows brackets shelters the uPVC entrance door, creating an inviting first impression.

Stepping inside, a useful entrance vestibule provides space for coats and shoes before a glazed timber door opens into the main hallway. Finished with attractive slate floor tiles that continue seamlessly into the kitchen and bathroom, the hallway also provides access to the loft space, which is insulated, partially boarded and houses the central heating boiler. Modern strip-panel internal doors, several with glazed inserts, allow natural light to flow effortlessly throughout the home.

The property offers a repurposed layout, transforming what would traditionally have been the primary bedroom into a spacious and sociable lounge and dining room. Full of character, the room is enhanced by an exposed timber beam and a striking feature wall with beaded strip panelling, blending traditional charm with contemporary styling. There is ample room for a large L-shaped sofa alongside a dining table and chairs, making it a superb space for both relaxing and entertaining. French doors open directly onto the rear garden, creating an effortless connection between indoor and outdoor living.

The kitchen is both practical and well-appointed, fitted with a range of shaker-style wall and base units complemented by laminated worktops and a tiled splashback. Integrated appliances include an electric oven, gas hob and fridge, while a stainless steel one-and-a-half bowl sink with drainer adds further practicality. Dual-aspect windows flood the room with natural light whilst enjoying pleasant views over both the rear garden and side aspect.

The primary bedroom occupies the former lounge and is a generously proportioned room with ample space for a king-size bed and additional bedroom furniture. A comprehensive range of fitted wardrobes and drawers provides excellent storage, whilst glimpses of the sea add to the room's appeal.

The second bedroom is another comfortable double, offering plenty of space for freestanding furniture and also enjoying attractive glimpses of the coastline, making it equally suitable as a guest room, hobby room or home office.

Completing the accommodation is a contemporary bathroom fitted with modern sanitary ware, a panelled bath with folding shower screen and shower above, wash hand basin with useful storage beneath, partially tiled walls and a chrome heated towel rail.

Outside, the south-facing rear garden has been thoughtfully designed to create a series of inviting outdoor spaces. A spacious slate-effect tiled patio provides an ideal setting for outdoor dining, entertaining or simply relaxing in the sunshine. The garden rises gently to an upper level retained by an attractive stone wall, with timber sleeper steps adding charm as they lead to a neatly maintained lawn bordered by colourful flower beds. Positioned to capture the last of the evening sun is a timber decked terrace, installed by the current owners, creating a wonderful spot to unwind at the end of the day. Mature planting, established hedging and timber fencing provide both privacy and a pleasant green backdrop, with sections of the fencing also having been replaced by the vendors.

Further enhancing the property's appeal, the current owners installed a brand-new roof in June 2024, providing additional peace of mind for prospective purchasers.

Perfectly positioned on the quiet residential road of Lon Derw, the property enjoys easy access to everything Abergele has to offer. The bustling town centre is just a short walk away, offering a wide selection of independent shops, cafés, restaurants, public houses and everyday amenities. Nature lovers will appreciate the nearby woodland walks through Coed y Gopa and the historic grounds of Gwrych Castle, whilst the stunning North Wales coastline is just a five-minute drive away, where the coastal path provides miles of scenic walks. Abergele also benefits from a leisure centre, bowling green, golf club, parks and excellent transport connections, with the A55 Expressway accessible within minutes for convenient travel along the North Wales coast and beyond.
