1 Bedroom Maisonette located in Crawley

We are delighted to present this well-maintained one-bedroom ground floor maisonette, ideally situated on Jersey Road in the sought-after Cottessmore Green area of Crawley.

The property offers spacious accommodation throughout, including a generous double bedroom and a bright, well-proportioned living room, providing an ideal space for both relaxing and entertaining.

The kitchen is fitted with a range of cupboards and comes complete with white goods, making the property ready to move straight into. The modern bathroom is finished to a high standard and benefits from both a bath and a separate shower for added convenience.

Externally, the property boasts a large private rear garden, perfect for enjoying outdoor space, along with communal parking available directly in front of the property.

Further benefits include double-glazed windows throughout and a convenient location close to local amenities, schools, bus routes, and transport links, offering easy access to Crawley town centre and the surrounding areas.

Available from the end of the month, this property presents an excellent opportunity for a single professional or couple looking for a spacious home in a desirable location.

For enquiries or to arrange a viewing, please contact us directly. We would be delighted to show you around.
