

The Fairstead, Botesdale

Offers Over £400,000

 3

 2

 2

This wonderfully presented detached bungalow offers versatile accommodation with three good-sized bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with en-suite, while the third bedroom is currently utilised as a dining room. A spacious kitchen provides ample storage and worktop space, complemented by a generous living room and adjoining brick-based conservatory overlooking the rear garden. Outside, the attractive and well-established garden features paved patio areas, mature shrubs and flower beds, while a private driveway and single garage provide ample parking.

Key Features

- Cul de sac location
- Presented with no onward chain
- Spacious living area leading to conservatory
- Three good sized bedrooms with the principle benefitting from ensuite
- Driveway and garage
- Living room with French doors leading to sunroom
- Private garden with well established flower beds and shrubs
- Close to amenities
- EPC Rating D
- Council Tax Band D

