This desirable Victorian end terrace house is offered to the market with the added advantage of no 'onward chain' and boasts 994 sq. ft. (92 sq. m.) of well proportioned accommodation arranged over 3 floors. Situated approximately 1.5 miles to the west of Reading town centre, this attractive period grey brick property is ideally located being within circa 15 minutes walk from Reading West Train Station, several regular bus services, Prospect Park and Kensington Recreation Ground plus a wealth of shops, gyms, supermarkets, cafes, pubs and restaurants.

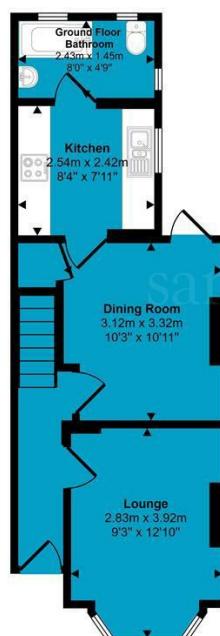

Having been a successful rental investment property as a 'house of multiple occupation', this deceptively spacious home is also ready for a new private owner to reside in. Accommodation comprises of entrance hall with stairs rising to first floor and doors opening to the lounge (formerly bedroom 5) with front aspect bay window, and the separate dining room with door to rear garden and the fitted side aspect kitchen which in turn leads to the ground floor 3 piece bathroom. On the first floor, 3 well proportioned separate bedrooms are serviced by a shower room. Stairs from the landing rise to the second floor where the fourth bedroom is situated in the converted loft space with front aspect 'Velux' window and fitted eaves storage. Outside, the rear garden measures approximately 25' (7.5m) in length plus a side return to the door into the dining room. The garden has been recently cleared in readiness for a new owner to landscape to their taste.
