Radwell Drive, Bradford, West Yorkshire, BD5 0QT

This two-bedroom flat, for sale in Bradford, offers a setting ideal for access to local amenities and city views from its position on the 12th floor. The accommodation comprises a separate reception room, a modern kitchen, two double bedrooms, and a bathroom equipped with a heated towel rail. Residents benefit from on-site parking.

Situated in close proximity to Bradford city centre, this property places many amenities within easy reach. The surrounding area offers convenient access to supermarkets, cafés, and shops, as well as Lister Park, known locally for its landscaped gardens, boating lake, and the Cartwright Hall Art Gallery.

Families will appreciate the selection of schools nearby, including both primary and secondary options. For those seeking leisure and dining, the city's high street is just a short walk or drive away, providing a range of restaurants and independent establishments.

Public transport is well-catered for in this location. The nearby Bradford Interchange provides train services with direct routes to Leeds, Manchester and beyond, and regular bus services connect to surrounding districts. Typical journey times to Leeds by train are around 20 minutes, while Manchester can be reached in just under an hour.

The property is located within council tax band A. Overall, this flat presents an opportunity for buyers seeking city living with convenient access to both local facilities and transport links.
