Location

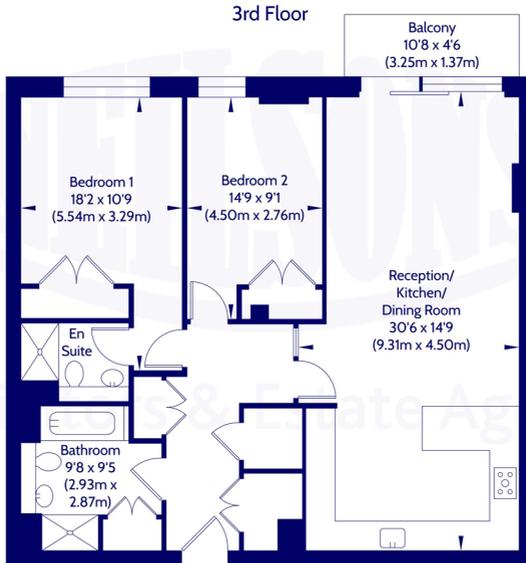

The property is located within the sought-after Western Harbour development in Newhaven, a vibrant coastal community just three and a half miles north of Edinburgh's city centre. Combining the tranquillity of waterfront living with the convenience of excellent urban connections, this prime location offers an exceptional lifestyle.

Residents enjoy direct access to scenic coastal walking and cycling routes, the picturesque harbour at Newhaven, and a growing selection of stylish waterside restaurants and cafés. Ocean Terminal shopping centre, currently undergoing an exciting £250 million transformation, is just moments away and set to become a major leisure and retail destination, enhancing the area's appeal even further. It already offers a range of high street shops, a multiscreen cinema, and a variety of eateries. A large Asda supermarket in Newhaven provides everyday convenience, while the thriving communities of Leith and The Shore, renowned for their trendy bars, award-winning restaurants, and cultural attractions, are just over a mile away. This well-connected setting is ideal for city commuters and travellers alike, with regular tram and bus services offering swift, direct access to the city centre and Edinburgh Airport. The nearby Ferry Road (A902) provides an easy route to the city bypass and beyond. Fitness enthusiasts will also appreciate the proximity of the David Lloyd health club, making this an outstanding location for those seeking a dynamic coastal lifestyle with all the advantages of city living.
