This generous room offers plenty of living space, with stairs to the first floor and a door through to a rear hallway with a back door and a door into the shower room.

On the first floor there is the landing with a useful storage cupboard and a rear facing window providing plenty of light. The back bedroom is a good sized single bedroom, overlooking the courtyard garden at the rear. The front bedroom is a really good sized doubled bedroom, with two windows at the front providing the lovely outlook looking across to Launceston Castle.

At the rear there is an enclosed courtyard garden, a great space to sit out and enjoy the good weather! There is a useful storage out-house.
