In the background, there are green hills and a prominent cliff face. The foreground shows a cluster of buildings, including a large parking lot filled with cars, and a road. A white location pin icon is overlaid on the bottom right of the image.

Polzeath is a highly desirable holiday and residential village, with a vast expanse of golden sand, excellent surf and scenic coastal walks. Polzeath is fortunate to have a range of good places to eat and drink such as TJ's Surf Café, The Waterfront, The Oystercatcher, The Cracking Crab, Surfside, and the Atlantic Hotel, but there is also a wealth of excellent restaurants and pubs in the surrounding area including Rick Stein's and Paul Ainsworth's No 6 in Padstow, Nathan Outlaw in Port Isaac and The Mariners in Rock. The ferry and water taxi make travelling to Padstow easy and enjoyable. Most everyday shopping requirements can be met locally but the market town of Wadebridge, with an inspiring collection of independent shops, is around seven miles distant.
