Tucked away on the picturesque and historic Higher Street, just a short stroll from Brixham's vibrant harbour, Pilchard Cottage is a beautifully restored one-bedroom Grade II listed fisherman's cottage, once a pilchard store and now an exceptional coastal retreat. This charming bolthole has been extensively refurbished to a high standard and is currently operating as a successful holiday let, offering an exciting investment opportunity or a tranquil second home.

Inside, the cottage showcases a perfect fusion of character and comfort. The open-plan living space is full of warmth and charm, featuring exposed timber beams, a painted stone feature wall, and a cosy electric fire. The modern kitchen is well-equipped with an electric oven, two-ring hob, microwave, and fridge, complemented by a sleek breakfast bar — ideal for relaxed dining or a glass of wine after a day by the sea.

Upstairs, the generously proportioned double bedroom boasts a king-size bed, more exposed stonework, and skylights that bring in plenty of natural light. The contemporary shower room offers a walk-in shower, basin, WC, and a heated towel rail, creating a boutique hotel feel.

While there is no dedicated parking, residents and visitors can make use of the town centre car park just a short walk away, or find on-street parking on nearby roads. The cottage is perfectly placed to enjoy all Brixham has to offer — from the bustling harbour and seafood restaurants to coastal walks and independent shops — all within easy reach.

Whether you're looking for a turnkey holiday let, a weekend escape, or a charming bolt-hole by the sea, Pilchard Cottage is a standout opportunity in one of Devon's most sought-after harbour towns.
