SITUATION

Believed to derive its name from meaning 'a settlement on a hill with an edge or brow', Edgton enjoys a wonderful, elevated position amidst some of Shropshire's most beautiful countryside. Dormer Cottage, occupies a peaceful position on the edge of the hamlet, and takes full advantage of this setting with delightful long-range views across the surrounding landscape. The village has a strong community with a village hall but relies on local services and amenities based in Lydbury North 2 miles away and the larger towns of Craven Arms (4 miles) or Bishops Castle (5 miles). The larger towns of Ludlow (12 miles) and Shrewsbury (20 miles) provide access to a full range of services and amenities. Edgton is a small yet thriving rural community, renowned for its friendly village spirit and peaceful surroundings. Situated within the breathtaking Shropshire Hills National Landscape, the hamlet boasts a number of attractive listed buildings and lies on the historic London stagecoach route.

DESCRIPTION

Tucked away on the edge of the picturesque hamlet of Edgton, Dormer Cottage is a delightful family home that perfectly combines character, comfort and an enviable rural setting. Whilst possessing all the charm of a traditional country cottage, the property is not an old cottage, offering generous, well-planned accommodation with a welcoming atmosphere throughout.

Internally, the cottage offers exceptionally well-proportioned accommodation filled with natural light. Two inviting reception rooms provide versatile living space, with the principal sitting room enjoying attractive views across the gardens and centred around a striking stone fireplace incorporating a wood-burning stove, creating a wonderfully cosy focal point.

The country-style kitchen is both practical and welcoming, featuring windows to three elevations that flood the room with daylight. Well-equipped for modern family living, it connects conveniently with the central hallway, where front and rear porches provide practical everyday access, alongside a cloakroom and separate boiler room/utility, housing washing machine & tumble dryer.

The first floor offers four individual and characterful bedrooms. The principal bedroom is particularly appealing, featuring an attractive beamed ceiling and enjoying peaceful views across the rear gardens. The remaining bedrooms provide flexible accommodation for family, guests or those seeking space to work from home. and are serviced by a family bathroom.

Beneath the house is an integral single garage, accessed from the quiet lane, together with private parking to the front of the property. Adjacent to the house is a workshed/garden office, fitted with workbenches and shelving. Mains electricity, with computer access via the house WiFi.

Dormer Cottage presents a rare opportunity to acquire a charming and distinctive home in one of South Shropshire's most desirable rural locations. Combining generous accommodation, glorious gardens, wonderful views and the tranquillity of village life, it offers an exceptional lifestyle surrounded by some of England's finest countryside.

OUTSIDE

Approached from a quiet country lane, the property sits within approximately one third of an acre of enchanting gardens that have been thoughtfully created to blend seamlessly with the natural surroundings. Informal lawns, including a rockery pond, mature shrubs, shaded retreats and winding grassy pathways, and corner woodland combine to create a series of delightful outdoor spaces, with numerous seating areas providing perfect places to relax, entertain or simply enjoy the changing seasons. To the side of the property is a natural stream with footpaths leading towards Ridgeway Hill or alternatively, Wart Hill on the other side of the village.
