Silcock Close, Colchester

Nestled in the desirable Silcock Close area of Colchester, this well-maintained one-bedroom ground-floor maisonette presents an ideal option for both first-time buyers and investors. The accommodation has been thoughtfully cared for, offering a bright, comfortable, and practical living space.

The private front door opens into a light-filled living room, which leads through to a modern fitted kitchen. A spacious double bedroom and a neatly finished bathroom complete the layout, creating a home that's easy to enjoy and ready to move into.

The property further benefits from its own separate entrance, adding an extra sense of privacy and independence.

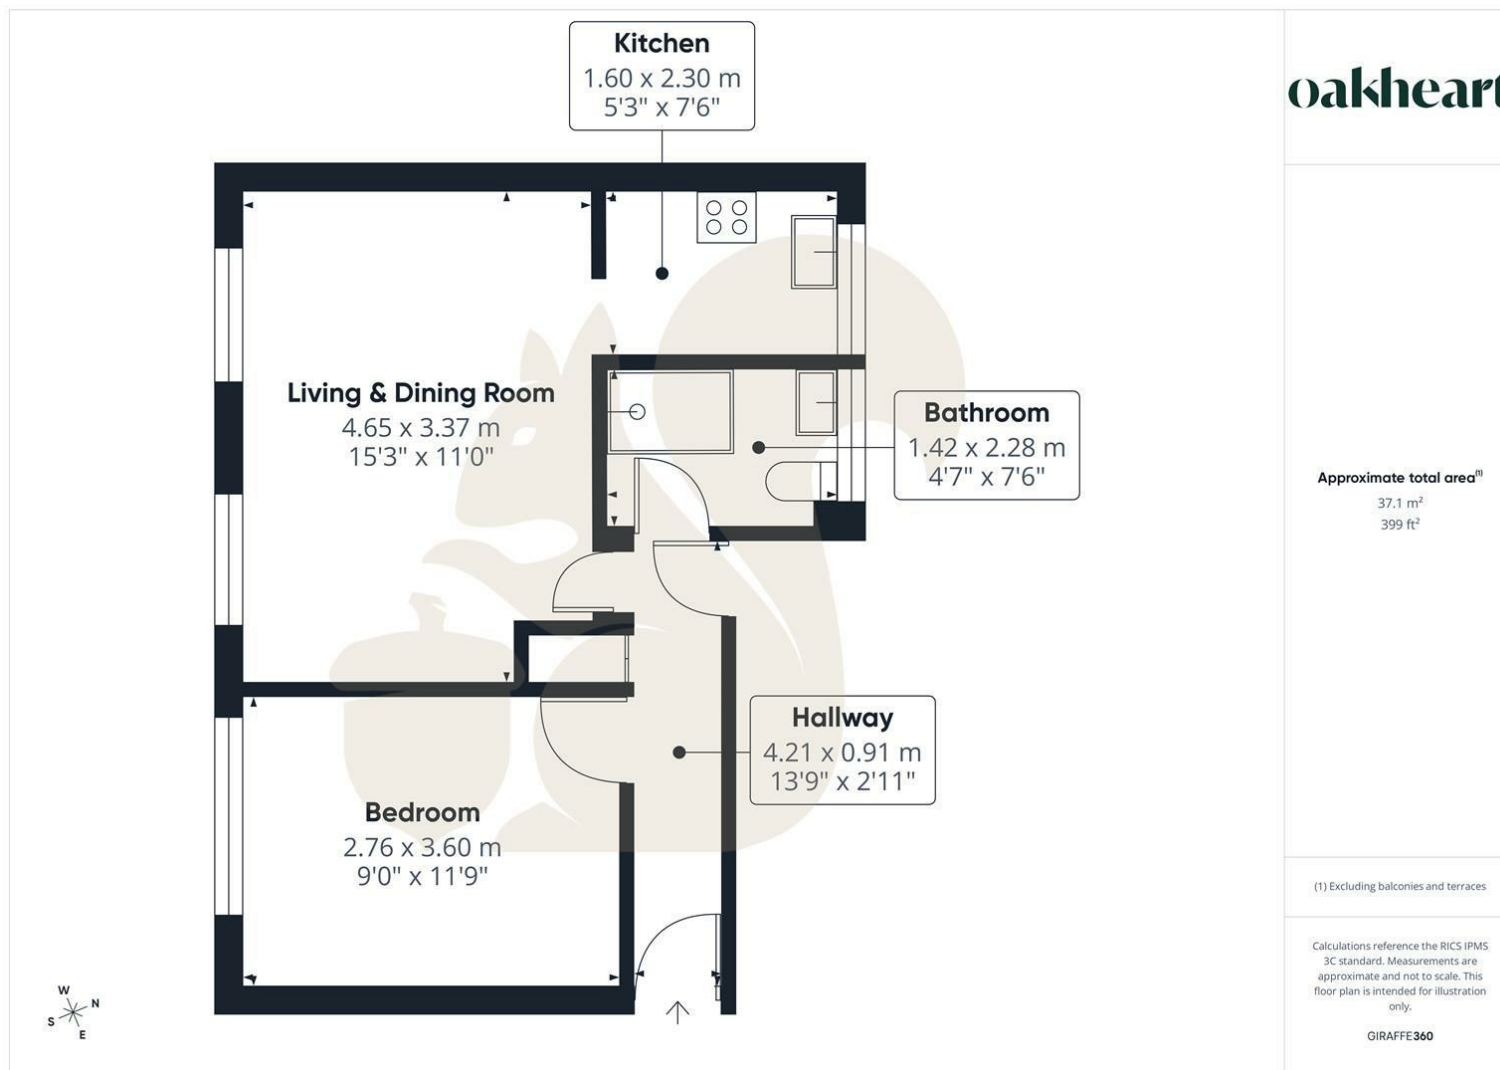

Outside, you'll find a rear garden and allocated off-road parking, while double glazing and gas heating provide year-round comfort. Tucked within a peaceful residential setting, the home is perfectly positioned for access to nearby shops, everyday amenities, and excellent transport connections into Colchester town centre and beyond.
