Property Introduction

Approached via a shared private drive to the rear, one will find a stunning lounge/dining room which features a granite lintel fireplace and opens to a superb fitted kitchen with solid wood working surfaces arranged to form a partial room divider, there is also a stunning sunroom which has views over the garden towards open countryside.

On the first floor, there are three double bedrooms with the principal benefitting from an en-suite and a family bathroom which has been remodelled in a contemporary style and includes a separate shower enclosure in addition to the raised bath.

Fully double glazed and with heating provided by an oil fired boiler, there are solar panels and the pool is heated by an air source heat pump.

The generous south facing gardens offers a high level of privacy and leading from the sun lounge there is a superb patio terrace ideal for outside entertaining and incorporating an outdoor swimming pool which is heated. For those looking to work remotely there is a purpose built insulated office at the bottom of the garden together with a substantial timber shed.

In summary, a stunning period home in a rural setting offering character and privacy, viewing our interactive virtual tour is strongly recommended prior to arranging a closer inspection.

Location

Situated within a short distance of the village of Lanner, here one will find a choice of convenience stores, a fish and chip shop, public houses and schooling for younger children.

The nearest major town is Redruth and here there is a mix of national and local shopping outlets, a mainline Railway Station with direct links to London and the North of the country and Redruth is also home to Kresen Kernow which is a mecca for those researching their Cornish roots.

The A30 trunk road is within a short drive and Truro, which is the administrative and cultural centre for Cornwall and the University town of Falmouth on the South coast are both within commuting distance.

Portreath on the North coast which is noted for its sandy beach and active harbour is within seven miles.

This rural cottage is far from isolated and enjoys easy access to all that Cornwall offers whether it be sandy beaches, rugged coastlines or countryside walks.
