Location

Peak Dale is a charming small village located approximately two and a half miles from the spa town of Buxton, sitting on the outskirts of the Peak District National Park. The property enjoys easy access to both the vibrant amenities of Buxton—including the historic Pavilion Gardens, Buxton Opera House, and excellent shopping facilities—and the stunning natural attractions of the Peak District. The village offers a tranquil setting with good transport links and easy reach of local schools, shops, and recreational facilities. Nearby Tideswell, known as the Cathedral of the Peak, and the popular Monsal Trail provide excellent walking and leisure opportunities.

The location is a walker's paradise, with an abundance of scenic routes ideal for all fitness levels. The Monsal Trail—a popular five-mile traffic-free walking and cycling route—is just two miles away and runs through spectacular limestone dales between Millers Dale and Bakewell. The Limestone Way and Pennine Bridleway offer further long-distance walking opportunities from the doorstep. For shorter rambles, Deep Dale Nature Reserve, the Derbyshire Dales National Nature Reserve, and countless Peak District footpaths provide easy access to outstanding natural landscapes. Chrome Hill and Parkhouse Hill peaks lie nearby, offering excellent hiking and panoramic countryside views.
